

+ N40 Extra +
Friday 19th April 11am at Two Temple Place, London

(I chose this date because it is after the school Easter Break, but before a Glass Exhibition that they currently have on closes. It covers 170 years of glass making.)

Two Temple Place was commissioned in the early 1890s by one of the richest men in the world, expatriate New Yorker William Waldorf Astor, to be his London estate office. Designed by the famous gothic revivalist architect, John Loughborough Pearson, it is an extraordinary celebration of late-Victorian design and craftsmanship. <https://twotempleplace.org/>

Meet at Charing Cross at 10:30am by the clock. It is FREE admission.

Please let me know if you intend to come, as I may be able to organise a guided tour.
